The Electric (better known as The Electric Slide) is a four wall line dance set to Marcia Griffiths and Bunny Wailer's song "Electric Boogie". Choreographer, Richard L. "Ric" Silver created the dance in 1976.

For the purposes of accuracy.

There are supposed to be 22 steps to the dance. Richard Silver was born on January 22. Most people only dance 18 steps. To dance it as the choreographer intended the forward and back touch steps should be danced twice.
